USING NEW SYSTEM

Three Hundred Packages Are Sent Out by Parcel Post.

Judging from the large number of Southenders who yesterday took advantage of the new parcels post and put packages in the Manchester Station of the Post-office for transmission, the system which has just been inaugurated will be a success in this section at least. Five three hundred packages were mailed. While this is not an unusual amount, it is considerably above the average, and seems to indicate that the innovation will be well received.

Miss Clara Holden, who has been in charge of the stamp and general delivery department, will assume the responsibility of conducting the new feature until the increase in business warrants the employment of extra clerks. She was kept busy yesterday explaining the workings of the new system to interested merchants and shippers. Many of these purchased stamps, and will give the system a trial.

Quite a few parcels were received at the office yesterday. They were all from nearby points, and were mostly from the rural routes. At present the regular carriers will deliver the packages.

Twelve denominations of stamps are on sale. They run from 1 cent to 75 cents in value. They are slightly larger than the ordinary stamp and have the words parcels post at the top. No others may be used on parcels.

Under a ruling of the Post-Office Department no fourth class mail matter can now be registered. In place of this an insurance stamp can be purchased for 10 cents. This assures an indemnity of $50 if the parcel is lost.

New School at Bon Air

Lumbers of Girls' Home Will Receive Benefit of Competent Instruction.

After overcoming many serious obstacles the management of the Bon Air Girls' Home has at last succeeded in completing the school for the inmates of the institution. A teacher to be selected by William G. Owens, Superintendent of the Chesterfield County Schools, will begin her duties next week.

The erection of the building was authorized at the last session of the Legislature, when a measure providing for the expenses of the school was passed at the request of the State Department of Public Instruction. The new building is arranged in accordance with the requirements of the Department, and the building fund pledges is due.

The school will be held during the next two weeks. The second term will begin on the first of next month.

Funeral of Mr. DuVal

The funeral of William S. DuVal, who died Wednesday, was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from his residence at Chester Road, C. N. Friend, officiating. The interment was in the Salem Church Cemetery, on the Chesterfield Courthouse Road.

School Again in Session

After a two weeks' holiday the children of South Richmond returned to their studies yesterday morning. All are busy preparing for examinations, which will be held during the next two weeks. The second term will begin on the first of next month.

Will Build Two Stores

To Marry in Washington

John M. Didlake and Mrs. Carrie Robertson will leave this morning for Washington, where they will be married immediately upon arrival. After a Northern trip they will return to this city and make their home at 302 West Fifteenth Street until spring, when they will move to Mr. Didlake's farm in Chesterfield County.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. John Pollard have returned from their bridal tour, and are making their home on West Twelfth Street.

Misses Anna and Lena Talbott, of Rocky Mount, are the guests of Miss Adair Talbott, of 414 Marx Street.

Edward M. Cox and his bride, who were formerly Miss Nellie Rees, have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Chesterfield, and are now making their home at 5 West Thirtieth Street, Swansboro.

Count Wounded in Sabre Duel

Budapest, Hungary, January 2.—Count Michael Karolyi, a prominent member of the opposition in the Hungarian lower house, was severely wounded by Count Stephan Tiza, the speaker of the lower house, in a sabre duel to-day. Count Tiza was cut in the hand.

The duel lasted an hour, during which thirty-two bouts were fought. It was brought to a conclusion only by the expression of the combatants, who separated without being reconciled. The duel grew out of a quarrel over the lower house, narrowly escaped assassination by Deputy Julius Kovacs, who fired at him three times, and then shot himself. The attack upon Count Tiza was the outcome of the universal suffrage agitation to which he is strongly opposed. A large number of the opposition delegates had been excluded from the chamber. The exclusion gave rise to many "hot" scenes, and the excluded delegates, led by Count Michael Karolyi, Count Albert Aponyi and Francis Kossuth, tried to force their way into the chamber again, but were once more forced to retire. They have not since been admitted to the house.

Riedelbach Not Convicted

Jurors Fail to Agree in Case of "Human Bomb."

Los Angeles, Cal., January 2.—Although Carl Riedelbach, the "human bomb" had expected a conviction and warned the authorities that he intended to escape if possible, the jury which heard his case disagreed and was discharged yesterday. His attorney said they hoped to prove that Riedelbach was insane when he threatened to dynamite the city jail.

Washington Citizens' Memory

Refreshed—New Assessment Comes Soon.

One citizen of Washington forgot to add forty-eight cattle to his tax assessment for 1912. The grand jury has added them for him, on a valuation of $2,960. The report of the jury was received yesterday morning by Auditor C. Lee Moore.

Another resident had notes and bonds to the assessed value of $10,000, which overlooked in assessing questions of the tax assessor. One man confesses to the grand jury that he owns a gun and that it is worth $1. Five cattle go down at $50—$10 each. Two automobiles at $250 are added to the tax lists. Money on deposit appears in several places on the report of the grand jury.

Assessments for 1913 will be made by the commissioners of the revenue as of date February 1, and these officials will soon prepare for the annual fray. The blanks, as already stated, contain special features calling the attention of the assessing officers to the provisions of the law.

It is hoped that this year all citizens will make full presentations of their property and that grand jury investigations will not prove so fruitful. But it is also thought that everybody is now advised of the law and that indictments will follow failures to give in property hereafter.

Arrested on Warrant

On a charge of obtaining a ton of coal from M. J. Johnson & Company under false pretenses, Hill Samuels, a young married man, was arrested last night on a warrant, in which Johnson was the complainant. He was held for appearance in Police Court, Part 2, this morning. He has retained Morris & McCarty, and will contest the charge, which arose over the delivery of coal which is alleged to have been sent C. O. D. and which was not paid for. A special statute covers the alleged offense.

General News Notes

The regular weekly session of the Swansboro court will be held this morning, with Squire J. E. Cowan, of Bon Air, on the bench. No cases of importance have been docketed.

The annual election of officers of the South Richmond and Chesterfield Business Men's Association will be held to-night at a meeting to be held in Fraternal Hall at 8 o'clock. A smoker will follow the meeting.

Notices have been sent out by the vestry of the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church calling attention to the fact that the first installment on the building fund pledges is due.
